Dear UJCC Friends and Family,

In her book, A Praying Congregation: The Art of Teaching Spiritual Practice, Jane Vennard tells this story:

"I was interviewing a number of people at a large church that had an active prayer ministry and asked one of the participants to tell me about the prayer program and what he had learned from it. He talked about becoming involved in a program of intercessory prayer [praying for others and the world] as well as meeting weekly with a small group for Scripture study and prayer. He told us how his personal prayer life had deepened through these experiences in community and how grateful he was to his praying congregation. I asked him how his life had changed since he became more involved in prayer. 'Oh, my life has gotten much worse,' he said. 'I lost my job and my health insurance. My wife is not well, and my daughter's marriage is breaking up.' He paused, and then he smiled. 'But,' he said, 'I have the courage to face these difficulties, because I know, without a doubt, that God is with me. God does not make our lives easy or good. God gives us the strength to live faithfully'" (12).

There are many ways to think about prayer. Is God some kind of Santa Claus or genie who's "supposed" to grant our wishes whenever we ask? Or is God some omnipotent being who's obviously uncaring because our prayers aren't often answered immediately and in the ways we would like? Or is there another way to think about prayer...as a practice that leads us to God (and leads us back to God), that helps us feel connected and grounded in times of chaos?

This year's Advent Study is perhaps less of a study and more of a journey of exploration this year as we explore our understandings and past experiences with prayer as well as learn some new prayer practices to connect and ground us. UJCC's Advent theme is "How Are We Missing Jesus?" What's distracting us from Jesus in our midst? Learning prayer is one way to refocus ourselves on his coming and prepare ourselves to invite him into the world. Learning prayer also helps us prepare ourselves to be his love in the world. It has the power to re-center our intentions and refresh our hearts as we prepare for the Christ Child.

Advent Study will begin Thursday, November 30, 6:30-7:45pm. We will meet every Thursday of Advent (November 30, December 7, December 14). We will wrap up on Thursday, December 21 with a Longest Night/Blue Christmas service, beginning at 6pm. (You can find details further along in the newsletter.) Please contact me if you have any questions or if you'd like to sign up.

Advent blessings to you all!

Akiko

Agape Presents!: "Won't You Be My Neighbor?"

Sunday, December 3; 12:45-1:45pm; 5th and 6th Grade Classroom

There are so many different kinds of people in this world. When we look at people from the outside, we think we're so different from them. An amazing thing happens when we hear other people's stories: we discover we've got a lot in common, that we hurt and rejoice just like they do. We discover their humanity and at the same time, we learn more about our own. It's time to have more conversations to get to know one another. We'll start our time with a fun mixer, then have an informal time of "Speed Sharing," and then close with a time of reflection. You're all invited to the first Agape Presents! event. Everyone is welcome! Come and join the fun as we share stories!

Blue Christmas/Longest Night

Thursday, December 21 @ 6:00pm; Fellowship Classroom

The Advent season leading up to Christmas can be difficult one for many of us who struggle with broken relationships, grief, and loneliness. This service is intended to be a quiet time for reflection in the midst of a busy season. We will have beautiful music, prayers, and candle lighting.

Following the approximately 40 minute service, we will share in a soup supper and time of fellowship together. All are welcome; come and soothe your soul.

Joys and Concerns

By the tender mercy of our God,
the dawn from on high will break upon us,
to give light to those who sit in darkness
and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace. Luke 1:78-79

In this season of Advent, we sit and rest, waiting for the light. Together, we are bearers of Christ's light as we pray for...

Elaine Omachi
Frances Kurushima
Hisaye Naito

Harvest Luncheon

Our recent Harvest Luncheon on October 22nd was another annual success. This event not only provides a delicious meal for the congregation, it united our church family together as we served and gave thanks to our Lord for all the blessings He has provided us. The comradery and team work was remarkably gratifying. It was so satisfying to one's heart when given the opportunity to give back to our creator. Thanks you all who attended for your contributions and support to UJCC.

We were able to sell the entire ordered meals including the extra meals Pardini's Catering donated. Under the supervision of Executive Chef Ian Hata, we were able to enjoy delicious catered meals with excellent, dependable catering service. We also have Toban C and D to thank for the generously providing an assortment of yummy desserts.

This luncheon could not have happened without the help and support from the dedicated committee volunteers and organizers. Special thanks to Janelle Saito for her countless hours of behind the scene organizing. With much appreciation to the following: Rev Rae, Rev Akiko, Arlene & Danny Eberly, Gus & Maggie Pendleton, Kathie Sakamoto, Joyce Dessert, Stephanie Sumi, Yukiko Hijioka, Neil Campbell, Doug Kuey, Kevin & MaryKay Watkins, Diane Staebler, David Wong, Victor & Anne Takeda, Gayle Matsubara, Laurie Wong, Bev Yatabe, Bea Tsutsui, Carol Visitacion, Ron Uragami, and the many other volunteers who helped make this a memorable joyous event.

The beautiful table preparations and fall decorations were provided by Leader Kathie Sakamoto and the awesome Girl Scout Troop 305 and their supportive parents. What troopers!

Thank you to Mrs. Tomoko Naito for her generous donation of green table grapes. They were an added garnish to each plate served. Thanks Danny for faithfully preparing the backup chicken and providing ice for the beverages.

I wanted to especially thank and acknowledge every one of the terrific kids who helped serve and provide entertainment for our luncheon guests. Many thanks to Rev Rae for organizing these wonderful musicians. Our church is so blessed to have such an amazing Youth Group and of course our multi-talented youth pastor! Thank you to the Youth Band: Ashley Lum (bass), Erik Kizior (keyboard), Halle Sembritzki (guitar, singer), Jonah Wong & Alex Nii (a. guitars) and Kiara Kreller (dance).

Hostess Joyce Dessert did a beautiful job managing our Youth Servers: Jude Juarez, Kiara Kreller, Kairyn Kreller, Paeon Ocampo, Isabela Hamasaki, Erik Kizior, Alex Nii, Jonah Wong, Drew Yamamura, Megan Matsubara, Ashley Lum, and Halle Sembritzki. We are so proud of all of you and applaud your fine performance and service.

It is always a blessing to work with so many wonderful individuals who go above and beyond to serve "our UJCC".

Respectfully submitted,
